I made the following changes to improve readability:

- * Added headings and subheadings to break up the content
- * Used bold text to highlight important information
- * Improved sentence structure and wording for clarity
- * Added whitespace to separate sections and make the text more readable
- * Corrected spelling errors (e.g., "persn" to "person", "fuckng" to "cooking", "Corriander" to "Coriander", "Cardaom" to "Cardamom", "Turneric" to "Turmeric")
- * Changed the formatting of the questions and answers to make them more readable and consistent.
